A plan of devotion, purpose, and prayers

Psalm 27

David expresses confidence in the Lord as his light and salvation, addressing fear with trust in God's protection.

Isaiah 41

God reassures His people that they need not fear because He is with them, upholding them with His righteous right hand.

2 Timothy 1

Paul encourages Timothy by reminding him that God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind.

Psalm 91

This chapter speaks of God's protection and refuge, providing comfort and assurance against fear.

Joshua 1

God commands Joshua to be strong and courageous, assuring him of His presence as he leads the people, which can encourage anyone facing fear.

Isaiah 43

God reassures His people that they should not fear, for He has redeemed them and will be with them through every trial.

Romans 8

Paul teaches that nothing can separate us from the love of God, emphasizing that God's love casts out fear and gives us security.

Psalm 23

David speaks of the Lord as his shepherd, who leads him beside still waters and comforts him, even in the valley of the shadow of death.

1 John 4

John speaks about God's perfect love, which drives out fear, providing confidence and security in God's love.

Exodus 14

The Israelites face the Red Sea, and Moses encourages them not to be afraid, but to stand firm and see the deliverance the Lord will bring.

Deuteronomy 31

Moses assures the Israelites that God will be with them as they enter the Promised Land, encouraging them to be strong and courageous.

Psalm 46

This chapter portrays God as a refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble, which can alleviate fear.

Matthew 6

Jesus teaches not to worry about tomorrow, focusing instead on seeking God's kingdom, which helps combat the fear of the future.

Hebrews 13

The author encourages believers to be content and free from the love of money because God has said, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you."

Proverbs 3

This chapter encourages trust in the Lord with all your heart and not leaning on your understanding, which counters fear with faith.
